NCRC Ernest J. Bohn Scholarship

Program

NCRC NAHRO is pleased to announce the availability of its annual Ernest J. Bohn Education Scholarships. Two successful candidates are eligible for scholarships in the amount of $1,000.00 or $500.00 respectively. Scholarship funds may be used for any expenses directly related to post-secondary education (tuition, room/board, books, etc.).

Applications must be submitted to NCRC NAHRO by April 1, 2022 to:

Submit to: Aaron Cooper, Vice President of Member Services, phone: (313) 561-2892 • email: coopera@inksterhousing.org

Executive Director, Inkster Housing Commission, 4500 Inkster Road, Inkster, MI 48141

Eligibility

1. Scholarship applications are only available to eligible member agencies. An eligible agency is a member agency in good standing with NCRC & NAHRO.
2. Eligible individuals are provided a service or live in a household managed by an eligible member agency.
3. Eligible individuals must be a graduating high school senior, possess a high school diploma or GED, and must be applying to or attending an accredited institution of higher education. If currently attending college, applicants must be registered for at least two (2) classes.
4. Scholarship awards may be used for any two or four-year accredited post-secondary program. The application cannot be used for graduate or post-graduate level programs.
5. An active NCRC & NAHRO Agency Member must sponsor the application.
6. Only one application may be sponsored by an agency.

Scholarship Opportunities

- NCRC Ernest J. Bohn Scholarships - Two scholarships (one receiving $1,000 and one receiving $500) will be awarded and paid directly to the accredited institution of higher education. The $1,000 scholarship award recipient will also have their scholarship application forwarded to NAHRO for additional scholarship opportunities through the NAHRO Merit Scholarship listed directly below.
- NAHRO Merit Scholarship - Eight scholarship recipients, one from each NAHRO region, will receive a $1,000 award. From these eight scholarship winners, the NAHRO Scholarship Committee will choose three candidates to become a part of the NAHRO-LDG Scholars program, which is a 10-year venture that will provide $1 million in scholarships and internship opportunities to low-income students from around the country and is funded by the award-winning multi-family housing developer, LDG Development.

Of the eight regional winners, three candidates will be chosen by the NAHRO Scholarship Committee to be a part of the NAHRO-LDG Scholars program. NAHRO-LDG Scholars will receive:

- A $12,000 scholarship distributed over four years to assist with tuition and fees;
- $3,000 a year for up to three years, as a summer internship stipend;
- Networking opportunities with business and community leaders.

Scholarship funds for both NAHRO Merit College Scholarship winners and NAHRO-LDG Scholars are sent directly to the scholarship winner's accredited institution of higher education once proof of registration is received.

How to Apply

If you are the scholarship applicant: complete the scholarship application (see page 2 for the scholarship application process and page 4 for the application form), then return it to the designated staff member at your housing authority before the housing authority's deadline.

If you are the national NAHRO member agency: submit your scholarship applications to your regional representative before the region's deadline. Each region will conduct its own judging, and one scholarship candidate per region will be submitted to national NAHRO for consideration.

If you are the NAHRO regional/scholarship representative: Send the winning scholarship application for your region to NAHRO by July 9, 2022. Email the scholarship application to Libby Leyden at lleyden@nahro.org with the subject: 2022 [Region Name] Scholarship Candidate.

Application Process

Please review this material carefully. If you have any questions, please contact awright@nahro.org.

For Scholarship Applicant:

1. Fill out and gather all required documents for the application (see checklist on page 3). These are:
 - a. Information form (page 4). This form must be reviewed and evaluated by a scholarship representative selected by the region. This could be the Regional or Vice President, RSO or another entity. To be considered complete, all sections of the application must be completed. If a section is not applicable, write N/A (not applicable) in the section; do not leave any sections blank. Any application that has blank sections, or that is missing appropriate submittals or signatures will be disqualified.
 - b. Two letters of character recommendation. These can be recommendations from the local housing authority, community or religious organization, employer or academic reference. Letters of recommendation may not come from family members.
 - c. An unofficial transcript from high school and/or the academic institution the applicant is currently attending (transcript may be forwarded separate from application but must be postmarked by deadline).
 - d. Verification of acceptance/attendance at an accredited institution of higher education.
 - e. An essay (750-1,000 words) written by the applicant. Please refer to page 5 for the essay prompt.
 - f. A clear, high-resolution headshot photo of the applicant.
2. Submit these materials to your housing authority, who will then forward them to the state or regional scholarship representative for judging.

For NAHRO Member Agency: Submit the scholarship applications to your regional scholarship representative for the regional judging before your region's deadline. Only one candidate per region will be submitted to NAHRO for consideration. To be eligible for the consideration, your agency must be a national NAHRO member in good standing.

For NAHRO Regional/Scholarship Representative: After your regional judging, send the winning scholarship application to Libby Leyden at lleyden@nahro.org with the subject: 2022 [Region Name] Scholarship Candidate by July 9, 2022.
